Feedback on Equipment and Cleanliness

While Crunch Fitness offers a wide range of equipment, some members have shared concerns regarding cleanliness and equipment maintenance. Issues such as broken bikes in the ride classroom, and instances of unclean locker rooms, especially for females, have prompted calls for improved hygiene practices. Ensuring a clean environment is vital for user satisfaction, and more attention is needed here.

A Final Note on Accessibility

Accessibility is a strong point for Crunch Fitness McKnight, with many wheelchair-accessible facilities enhancing the ability for all individuals to participate in fitness activities. However, some feedback highlights the need for better communication regarding facility updates and class schedules, especially when childcare options are unexpectedly closed.
