Accessibility for Everyone

One of the standout features of Jeramy Black's TaeKwonDo Academy is its focus on accessibility. The facility includes a wheelchair-accessible car park and a wheelchair-accessible entrance, ensuring that everyone can participate in the enriching martial arts experience. This thoughtful design allows students with varying needs to join in and gain all the benefits that the academy offers.

A Community of Support and Growth

Parents rave about their experiences at JBTKD. Many have noted how welcoming the instructors are, contributing to a family-friendly atmosphere. One parent mentioned that when their child attended classes, "everyone knew his name already," highlighting the personalized attention each student receives. The instructors are described as patient, knowledgeable, and genuinely caring. They play a pivotal role in nurturing each student's development, whether it's enhancing their self-confidence, focus, or social skills. Another parent remarked, "The staff has gone above and beyond to ensure [my child] is excelling and having fun while doing so."

Flexible Scheduling for Busy Families

Jeramy Black's TaeKwonDo Academy understands that every family has unique schedules. With multiple classes offered throughout the week, including Saturdays, parents can choose times that work best for them. Whether you have toddlers learning the basics or teens looking to refine their skills, the flexible schedule accommodates all levels.

Life Lessons Beyond Taekwondo

At JBTKD, training goes beyond just learning to kick and punch. The academy emphasizes life lessons such as leadership, responsibility, and respect for others. Students not only learn martial arts but also valuable skills that will benefit them in various areas of life. Parents have noticed significant improvements in their children's behavior and manners, stating that they have become "more respectful, well-behaved, polite, responsible, and compassionate."
