Wellfound Physical Therapy and Fitness - Williston

Discover Exceptional Care at Wellfound Physical Therapy and Fitness

If you're looking for a top-notch physical therapist in Williston, Vermont, look no further than Wellfound Physical Therapy and Fitness. With a focus on accessibility and patient-centered care, Jenn and Brandon offer a unique experience tailored to meet individual needs.

Accessibility for All

Wellfound is committed to providing an accessible environment for everyone. The clinic features a wheelchair-accessible entrance, allowing ease of access for all patients. Additionally, the facility includes a wheelchair-accessible car park and a wheelchair-accessible toilet, ensuring that every visitor feels comfortable and accommodated during their appointments.

Personalized Planning for Recovery

Jenn, the lead physical therapist, takes pride in her comprehensive approach to rehabilitation. Each treatment plan is personalized, addressing the specific issues of patients, from neck pain to post-surgical recovery. Many clients have shared their gratitude, emphasizing how Jenn's attention to detail and commitment to understanding their conditions have transformed their recovery journeys.

Recommended Appointments for Optimal Results

To maximize your healing process, appointments are recommended. This ensures that you receive the focused, one-on-one attention necessary for effective treatment. Patients report significant improvements in their conditions, often achieving results they never thought possible.

Amenities That Enhance Your Experience

At Wellfound, the amenities go beyond just excellent care. The environment is designed to be welcoming and supportive, contributing to a positive therapy experience. Many patients appreciate the private setting, where they can work closely with their therapists without distractions. Plus, you'll enjoy the company of Iris, the clinic's adorable therapy dog, who adds a special touch to your visit!
